Post-Mortems Of Mid-Term Finals

Qualms are what you get and knowledge is what deserts you just before final exams. The only trouble with this arrangement is that qualms don't quite get the same results.

There is no other scholastic sport so avidly indulged in as cramming. Everyone has an individual technique in the management of this seasonal activity, but the results are inevitably the same—the more facts you seek to acquire in that last six hours the less you know. So knowledge slips quietly away while qualms gallop repeatedly through and through your rapidly diminishing mind.

That week of exams goes on forever and a day until you think you will never come out of the darkness. Then suddenly it's all over—it's the relief of a pilot coming out of a tailspin. That is, a relief temporarily, until your grades intrude their gloomy tidings into your otherwise happy home.

Even so, before you regain control of your senses you are whirled into the registration of another carefree semester which you soon realize will end in the same hectic procedure . . .

Doris Smith Is Awarded Peoples Bank Scholarship

For the first time, The Peoples National Bank has awarded a Tyler Junior College scholarship to the salutatorian of the graduation class of Tyler high school. The salutatorian of the mid-term class was attractive, auburn-haired Doris Smith, an outstanding member of her graduating class. A member of the National Honor Society, she was voted by her classmates as the girl "most likely to succeed". Doris is now enrolled in the commercial classes of the T. J. C.

This scholarship is to be an annual event, not only awarded to the mid-term second-honor student but to the spring class salutatorian as well.

Dean Jenkins In Who's Who In Education

Dr. H. E. Jenkins, dean of Tyler Junior College for many years, has been included in the 1944-45 volume of leading educators in the publication of Who's Who In American Education.

Who's Who lists educators annually on the basis of prominence and their contribution to education.
First published in 1928, it is distributed to public, private, and professional libraries. Persons included are chosen by nomination for outstanding work in the educational field.

Dr. Jenkins received his Ph. D. in administration and education.
He is a member of the commission on institutions of higher learning of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and also a member of the commission on standards and accrediting of the Texas association.

He is chairman of the division subcommittee of the commission on junior colleges for the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, having served in this capacity for seven years and having visited junior colleges for the association.

He is past president of the Tyler Kiwanis Club, superintendent of the Marvin Methodist Church school, and is this year president of the Tyler unit of the Texas University Ex-Students Association.

Look At Your Shoes— Other People Do

If you see people looking at your shoes constantly, don't be alarmed. They are only members of Miss Marjorie De Bond's art class. Their assignment for this week was to draw pictures of shoes or flowers. Marion Martin, Jane Feder and Dot Stehans had the most clever pictures of shoes.
All kinds—moccasins, loafers and saddle shoes. They are practically drawing by looking only at the object being drawn.

JANELLE WELCH
T. J. C. Valentine of 1945

Tyler Junior College's choice for Miss Valentine for 1945 is Janell Welch. Janell is that cute Freshman with the sparkling brown eyes. She is very blonde but has a lovely white complexion.
She is an enthusiastic basketball fan for everytime there is a game

Janell comes to school next morning minus her voice. She is a member of Las Mascaras and was on the honor roll for the first semester. She has a sincere and genuine personality which brings many friends. She is one sweet girl—Janell Welch our Miss Valentine of 1945.

Texas Exes To Hold Banquet In Tyler Soon

The traditional annual meeting of University of Texas Ex-Students is to be held March 2 in Tyler at the Woman's Building.
This year the Texas Exes will have the privilege of hearing J.
Frank Dobie, who has recently returned from England, and whose articles have been featured in the Saturday Evening Post. Dean Jenkins, President of the Tyler unit of Texas Exes stated, "There is unusual interest in the meeting this year because of the fact that J. Frank Dobie is a most colorful personality. The people are interested in him because of his recent year at Cambridge University in England, because of his recent book and magazine articles, and because of his prominence in current University of Texas affairs."

Mike O'Connor
Leaves To Work
For Uncle Sam

At 7:15 on Tuesday evening of January 30, the president of our student body, Mike O'Connor, left for Camp Chaffee near Fort Smith, Arkansas, where he will take his basic training. After he completes his training there, he hopes to attend school.

Mike was one of the leading students of T.J.C. He was a member of Phi Theta Kappa, Las Mascaras, The Engineers, and of the basketball team.

The students will miss Mike.
The Pow Wow staff will miss his stories for the paper, especially his use of the word "fabulous" and his Wade theories.

He made a fine president and Tyler and Tyler Junior College will regret losing him to the Army.

Basketball Boys! There is a rumor that there is a party just around the corner for you—Watch for it!

Lounge To Be Provided For Men Of T. J. C.

Well, at last the boys of T.J.C. will be able to take it easy in their new lounge. Work on this project has been going on for some time and the boys of the college wish to give their thanks to Miss Adele Henderson and Mrs.
Jones for relinquishing their office for this "haven of relaxation."

Tuesday morning, Feb. 6, acting president, Marjorie Sloan, appointed a committee of five boys: Allen Balch, chairman; J. C.
Boucher, Donald Guinn, J. W.
Chubuck, and Bascom Slovar, to draw up a set of rules to govern the conduct of the boys in using the lounge, and with the help of Miss Bryarly, to select the furniture for the room.

The boys are planning an open house to mark the opening of their new lounge. The date of the big occasion will be announced later.

COKE PARTY

The "Coke Party" held for the boys and the new students of T. J. C. last Thursday was quite a gay affair. The hostesses for the occasion were the girls of Atta Kula Kula.

The girls of the club greeted their guests in the Girl's Lounge which was elaborately decorated.
The party seemed to be a huge success, for several of the guests returned again and again.

Not only did the guests enjoy cokes, cookies, peanuts and candy but they also enjoyed "Rum and Coca-Cola." Other recordings were played, too.

Those girls on the committees for the party were: Marjorie Sloan, Francine Bundy, Eleanor Allen, Pitsy Walker, Hazel Curry, Nancye Knight, Ruth Hinds, Jo Anne Shelton, Mary Jo McCullough, Mary Wilbanks, Janell
Welch, Jean Ricks, Bernice House, Elaine Knight, Christene Roberts, Charlene Waller, Mary Hart, Sarah Burnett, Cherie Grimes, Bonnie Shambarger, Margaret Galeghy, Margaret Honea, Mary Elizabeth Browning.

Swanson Awards Are Announced

O'Connor, Latta, Allen, Manning Win Prizes

Mike O'Connor, Elsie Manning, Eleanor Allen, and Ruth Latta have been declared the winners in the government essay contest sponsored by F. G. Swanson, florial representative from this district. The winners wrote on foreign relations, government regulation of business, changes in the Texas tax laws, and the problems of winning and holding the peace, respectively.

The judges decided that the one hundred dollar prize should be divided equally between the winners, hence each will be given a check for twenty-five dollars.

The winning essays, along with pictures of the winners, are to be published in the Tyler Courier-Times and the Texas Outlook.

The purpose of this contest was to stimulate creative research and the quality of the papers submitted, according to the judges indicated that thought and study had been devoted to the papers.

"Yea, Apaches!" Rings From Music Room Tuesday

Yea, Apaches, Yea, Apaches . . .
Fight, fight—The walls of ol' T.J.C. fairly shook Tuesday morning at Assembly period when all the braves, sachems, squaws, and papoose assembled for a pep rally (Those titles were acquired from the "history" of the totem pole which was given by Mr. Robert Glover Sternberger.) Bob also related the fabulous and famous significances of the peace pipe, the head-dress, and the tom-tom.
Wadell himself couldn't have done better.

Captain J. C. Boucher was introduced to the admiring throngs, then co-captain M. R. Buie, and then the other members of T.J.C.'s excellent team: Bob Wade, Donald Guinn, Bill Corbin, Billy Williams, Bascom Slovar, Thomas Whatley, J. W. Chubuck, Allen Balch, Wimpy Buckingham, and the manager, Robert Sternberger (that boy manages to get more publicity).

The pep leaders, Jean Ricks, Janell Welch, Pitsy Walker, and Mary Wilbanks, led the student body in a number of yells, and the Apache tribe did some pretty good yelling. The squaw beating the tom-tom was Charlene Waller.

The real purpose of the pep rally was to get a crowd out to the Lon Morris game Friday night, February 9 at 8:00 p.m.
Sure 'nuff, gang, be there, won't you? If you come, you'll see the Apaches win—this won't be an "empty" victory, either, because the team will get a chocolate cake if they win—After that statement, is there any doubt in anyone's mind but that they will win?

Voice Improvements To Be Studied In Spring Speech Classes

The students of Miss Howell's speech class will soon know what defects their voices have. They are planning to make a record of a two-minute speech by each student and then play it back and point out mistakes and defects.

Also, Miss Howell is preparing a program to be given over the radio from Longview station KFRO for Big Sandy High School at 2:45 p.m. on March 28.

One of the Swanson prize essays will be read and there will be songs by a quartette composed of Hazel Curry, Charlene Waller, Sybil Hogue, and Janell Welch.

"TREETOP"

At the T.J.C. basketball game Monday night Mary Wilbanks was obstructing the view of some of the girls. Dorothy Stephens yelled to Mary—"Hey! Treetop, pull in your branches."

Basketball Games

By ELEANOR ALLEN

In times previous Tyler Junior College has carried off the state basketball championship. Tyler and Apaches have been proud of their school. But like most things, T. J. C. has been hit by the war. We have fewer boys and the prospect of out-of-town games has at times seemed hopeless. However, the boys in school have got together, formed a team, and started playing. During their games with Pounds Field, Camp Fannin, and various schools they have shown ability. The team is good.

It is now time for students of T. J. C. to take recognition of the fact that we do have basketball games. The admission is taken care of in the activity fee. There should be a cheering section for the Apaches.

What are YOU going to do about it? It's your school and your school is what you make it.

Broken Resolutions

By NEIL GARRISON

Half of the year's work is over and we are two weeks into the new semester, that semester in which we resolved to do better work. Promises to bring up our grades that we made on receiving our report cards were quickly forgotten and we are back in the same old rut.

Everybody was simply broken out in resolutions that first week as they scurried industriously from class to class. A peek through a class room door would show a body of attentive students, grouped near the front of the room, gazing brightly up into the instructor's face. Now classes are begun with a sigh and endured with bored looks and languid attempts at note-taking.

We can't afford to let this state of affairs continue throughout another semester. We have made our mistakes, and not just a few of them, and now knowing where our weaknesses lie, we are able to apply ourselves a little more diligently at these points.

According to Mr. Groundhog, Spring is just around the corner. And what comes to everyone's mind at the thought of spring? Ah! Yes, Romance!

Top Notchers

Girl

Though Junior College lost some of its best students at mid-term, it gained a number of the high school graduates, among whom we find that charming person, Bettie Jane Lukenbill, better known as "Luke." This gray-eyed blonde, whose winning smile and charming personality made her one of the popular graduates, is a member of the select National Honor Society. It seems Bettie, who plans to attend Texas University, has the high ambition of every girl: that is to be a good wife. Bettie, when asked how she liked Junior College, exclaimed: "I love the friendly atmosphere."

Teacher

Tyler Junior College has a very good science department—Mr. J. C. Henderson. Mr. Henderson, a

Boy

One of a dwindling few, who needs not fear the draft board (for awhile), is Noble Sydney Haynes. Sydney, who could easily pass for a Frenchman with his black hair and dark features, plans to attend Texas University and fulfill his ambition of becoming a diagnostician. But he could easily have chosen a career in music, for he has taken piano lessons for eight years and intends to go to Northwestern this summer to complete his music course. Sydney is an example of that saying, "To have friends, be a friend."

I. J. C. Book Collection

By MARY WHERRY

Capt. Robert W. Smith's desk holds Tyler Jr. College's collection of rare books. Miss Bonnie Pace of Troup donated to Tyler Jr. College in October, 1942, a desk which during the early nineteenth century belonged to a Smith County hero, Capt. R. W. Smith. Books housed in the secretary include first editions, rare and out-of-print books of Texas, books by Texas authors, some of which are first editions, photostats of newspaper articles, clippings, pictures, papers and other materials.

Particularly interesting are such volumes as the "Oxford Holy Bible," printed in 1799, the first history of Texas ever written in English, 1836, "Old Flag," Union Prisoners newspaper of Camp Ford. One book containing Mr.

Richard Hooker's words was written in Old English in 1705 and is dedicated to his most excellent Majesty, Charles II.

Included in the collections are books by such noted authors as Mollie Moore Davis, O. M. Roberts, Dorothy Scarborough, Douglas Scarborough McDaniel, Henry Clay Risner, Mary S. Fitzgerald, Therese Lindsey and Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker.

Miss Ina Roberts, pretty Jr. College librarian, quite willingly offered to show the collection to any student who was interested in the rapidly growing collection.

By constantly keeping contact with famous Texas people Miss Roberts has managed to enlarge by leaps and bounds the rare book collection.

Fads And Fashions

At last—the long awaited arrival of our new T. J. C. hats has been realized. And that's not all—everyone has seen, by now, Billy Smith Williams' black and gold bow tie. And a sign of spring (???) could be the barefoot girls with shoes on: NANCY KNIGHT and CAROL JOHNSON.

All the girls have been swooning over (no, not Frankie), MISS WILLIAMS' nylons! I said it couldn't be true, but seeing is believing, they tell me.

Is writing anonymous letters a fad or fashion . . . or either? From all evidences, I gather it's a fad, so in this column it goes. How about that, Buie?

Men who are aggravated by long, red fingernails should get a gander at JO ANNA MESSER'S long, blud ones.

Silver clips for the hair seem to really be the latest thing. Charlene Waller, Eleanor Allen and Pitsy Walker have been seen around the campus with them in their hair.

Sequin combs, jeweled combs, pearl and flower combs are not seen as the crowning glory of the girl's crowning glory. Some are sported by HAZEL CURRY and JO ANNE SHELTON. Speaking of such, it seems BETTY LUKEBILL always has ribbon perched behind that cute, blond, pompadour. And DORIS SMITH'S beautiful auburn hair just won't wait. It's the nicest color . . .

It seems that some of the Juniors have received some anonymous letters to know who wrote them, but we did it themselves. You see, "They're Lonely Side."

"Everybody's Doing It." You ask new T.J.C. caps that everyone's wearing. Cute aren't they?

Not everyone knows this but one boy is a simply super cook! ! That's fudge! Why Don't We Do This More?

Is everybody happy? Well then we the basketball games and give our little cooperation.

Former Apaches Are Married In Florida

Harriet Stephens and Lieutenant Bob Hayes, both outstanding ex-Apaches, were married quietly on Saturday at St. Paul's Cathedral in Delray Beach, Florida. The bride wore a pale blue dress and a corsage of white roses. The only attendants were the mother of the groom and the best man.

Lieutenant Hayes was commissioned in December and is now taking radar training at Bocaraton Field, Florida. He is probably best remembered here for his work on the last Annual T. J. C. had before wartime restrictions tightened. Harriet, who was editor of the Pow-Wow in her sophomore year, had been working in Dallas a year and a half before her marriage.

They will make their home in Florida until Bob is transferred or sent overseas.

T. J. C. Apaches Battle In Heated Basketball Contests

After finishing in a tie for third place in the first round of the city basketball league, the Tyler Junior College Apaches were anxious to better themselves in the second round. However, the Redskins got off to a slow start by dropping the first three games of the second round to the Medics, P. W. Chasers, and the 64th Bt. respectively.

Tuesday night the Apaches tangled with the Field Artillery of Camp Fannin. The Redskins were determined to end their losing streak and did so by downing the Field Artillery 43-41. Many of the fans expressed the opinion that this was the best game the Apaches had played all season. It was a nip and tuck battle from the word go. The Redmen led at the end of the first period by a score of 15-7. However, the Artillery came from behind to take a brief lead in the second stanza. The Apaches regained the lead by sinking a basket just as the whistle ended the first half of play. The half ended with the Junior College five leading 23-22.

After the intermission the two teams battled with all that was in them, the Apaches fighting to maintain their lead and the Field Artillery using every trick in the bag to overtake them. The third canto ended with the Apaches leading 35-27. The final quarter was one that will be remembered for a long time by both players and fans. The Artillery obtained a lead of two points late in the game, and then both teams started a scoring spree, tying the score three times in the last three minutes of play. With the score tied and ten seconds to play, J. C. Boucher, lanky center for the Apaches, sank a long one to give the Junior College a two-point lead which they held. The game ended with the score 43-41 in favor of the Tyler Junior College Apaches.

Boucher scored fifteen points in the game to give him high score for the team. Boucher is currently tied with Edgerston of the Red Horses for individual scoring honors in the second round. Both players have 45 points to their credit.

... is a "daily must" with women who want to look their finest. Just spray it on (very little) every couple of days for a lovely, longer lasting hair-do.

For Your Valentine . . .

A charming personal gift that conveys Valentine Greetings in the traditional manner. Delightfully gay perfume—exquisitely lovely hankies—delicate costume jewelry—a pair of gloves—a box of our delicious candy—little gifts she'll forever remember!

All on our Main Floor!
